Vera Vandebosch : Scraps: Stylish Stash Fabric Crafts to Stitch before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Scraps: Stylish Stash Fabric Crafts to Stitch:

5 of 5 people found the following review helpful. Scraping AlongBy Catherine FellowsThis is a nicely done book, with good photos and some clever ideas and techniques for using fabric bits and pieces. The directions are clear and easy to follow. I think many families, especially with young children, would enjoy a lot of the crafts. The kids would like wearing things like the lace cuffs and the leather bangles. There are several ways to use denim scraps, and most growing families in the U.S. have left over jeans. The book isn't as useful to me as I had hoped, mostly because I'm old, not the type to wear fabric necklaces, and with only one grandchild, already grown. I am making the scrap mice in the book, and using them as "free with a purchase" in a gift shop where I volunteer. They seem popular.2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Creating with what you already haveBy W. HarbottleGreat ideas for lovers of creating anything and everything.The cover got my attention, so I wish there were more projects using vintage lace.I also would like to see more diagrams, photos for the 'how-to' instructions. At the end of the book Vandebosch compiled a list of suppliers and companies for her readers to check out what trinkets and wares then have to offer. And after all is said and done, I indeed enjoyed this book. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five Stars By LaneGood book, glad I bought it. Well packed and promptly shipped. Thank you.
