I discovered her designs with the first one and have picked up each of the books as they have been released. The latest coloring book has adorable little girls with huge eyes either holding or lounging in their favorite sweet treat. Following a surgery a few years ago, my sweet treat days are behind me but I get the vicarious enjoyment of them by coloring these little ladies. Just like with sweets, it is hard to stop with just one and I colored five of these little girls within the last two days. I used my Copic markers for most of the designs with some additions from other alcohol-based markers (Sharpies and Bic Mark-its) as well. I like to do eyes with oil-based coloring pencils rather than markers as I feel that I have a bit better control over the blending. Here is what I found within this book: 25 x 2 (50) My Sweet Treat Besties Big-eyed Girl Designs Printed on one side of the page Page is white, slightly rough, and is non-perforated Glue Bound Designs do not merge into the binding Room enough to cut pages out if you wish to do so Alcohol and water-based markers bleed through the page Gel pens and India ink pens leave color shadows on back of the page Coloring pencils work well: soft lead lay down color, layer, and blend well; hard lead dent the back of the page but lay down good color 4 of 4 people found the following review helpful. Totally sweet! By debm These books are so cute! I have all 5 of them and just can't help myself when she comes out with new books! Love it! 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great Item By A.D. McCullers, M.Ed What adult doesn't love to color?!?! This coloring book is perfect for any age and it really helps with relieving stress. There are multiple types of pictures to color in this book so regardless what your mood is you can find something to color and enjoy. I love this book! The pictures are gorgeous. There are more pages than I had anticipated. It's just what I was hoping it would be. I'm planning on purchasing more of these books. The artist designs are out of this world.
