Perfect for a Teacher, perfect for a Grandparent and perfect for all those friends that give up their weekends to spend with you and your family. Get creative, get inventive and give that personal touch to every gift.

About the Author Katy Handley graduated from Leeds Metropolitan University with BA (Hons) Economics for Business and from Bournemouth University with MSc Finance and Law. She is a progressive hands-on mother, inspired to write for those facing parenthood in the modern world. Parenthood goes beyond raising children. It's everything in between that we often find most challenging, such as the perfect teacher gift or the perfect way to say 'thank you'. Representing a new wave of thinking surrounding motherhood, Katy makes it known that you don't need to spend a fortune to give the perfect gift and you certainly don't need to be Superwoman. Short cuts are there to be used and what better shortcut is there, than to give a homemade gift from the heart.
