ROUND AND ROUND YOU GO -- HATS!!!By grande2011Made several of these hats and really enjoyed them -- had not worked much on circular before, and I really liked it. The hats do not take much yarn, one nice skein for most of them. Have had many, many compliments whenever I wear a hat I have made, especially the one on the cover. Made that one several times. After the first one that I made as is, I made the others by eliminating one of the bands so the hat is not so deep. Really fun, and looks great on! Enjoy this book -- well worth the investment!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. I really love this hat bookBy JenXI really love this hat book. The patterns are things I'd actually make. My favorite patterns are the one on the cover and jubilee. I've made jubilee twice now. I really couldn't recommend this enough. I have bought a lot of hat books and usually I only like one or two patterns. This one has tons. Also, they have technique info in the back and that was very helpful since I just relearned knitting in the round. I also used magic loop for decreasing instead of dpns and like that much better. I own both the Kindle and hard cover version. 9 of 9 people found the following review helpful. Very happy with this book. I have already completed several hats for Christmas gifts. Pattern instructions are well written and easy to follow.

About the Author A self-described "Indie Handmade Knitwear Artisan Designer and Fulltime Wisenheimer", Diane Serviss is the co-owner (with her husband) of and design force behind Pixiebell and Elfinwear, which sell patterns for knitwear (predominantly hats), as well as finished handknit items, through Etsy, Ravelry, and Craftsy. Her hats have made it onto both small and big screens: Ty Pennington wore one of her hats on an episode of Extreme Makeover, as does Dakota Johnson in the indie movie Theo, which released in 2013 and also stars Mira Sorvino. Celebrities number among Pixiebell's customers, including Ricki Lake, Nina Dobrev from Vampire Diaries, and Jim Shearer from MTV/VH-1. A born and bred Vermonter, Diane lives with her family just outside of Tampa, Florida.
