Exactly what I was looking for to add to my cross stitch patterns. As usual this designer's design is complicated and takes a lot of patience to work out but the end product is well worth the effort. Other patterns which I have done are sometimes mistaken for paintings until the person is fairly close to the work. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Her patterns are the best. By tismeinaz I have been working TW patterns since the late 80s or so. When I saw the pattern of the dragon wrapped around the castle - I fell in love with it and took up cross stitching with a vengeance. I've done at least 10 of her patterns. These aren't easy - you need to be methodical - but they are satisfying to work. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. awesome By beverly haessler cannot wait to finish these. the charts are clear and the directions are spot on. these will be lovely when finished.

Teresa Wentzler's masterful creations never fail to evoke a sense of wonder and delight. But there's something special about this pair of designs--the beautiful birds and fantasy foliage are worked entirely in whole cross stitches and use very little backstitch. That means the rich shading will come to life on your fabric more quickly than Wentzler designs of comparable size. You'll soon see these exotic creatures proudly posing on pillows or in frames. Stitch count for each design is 160w x 160h. Some stitches use blended colors of floss. Each black-and-white chart is divided into four sections. Models worked over two threads on 28-count Zweigart Cashel linen; finished size of each design 11.5 x 11.5. Teresa Wentzler's Brilliant Plumage (Leisure Arts #3936)
