Frank Goodwin Sanford : The Art Crafts for Beginners (Classic Reprint) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Art Crafts for Beginners (Classic Reprint):

Excerpt from The Art Crafts for BeginnersT often happens that young people with talent and a strong feeling for art Wish to go further in their study than is possible within the limits of the average school. There are two courses Open to such students. They can enter an art academy, or they can acquire such training as comes from the study of books, works of art, and through private instruction. Of these two courses, the former is much to be preferred, providing that the art school selected is influenced by the modern art spirit.
