I have a pretty extensive collection of books on this genre and consider myself knowledgeable about the artisans. Imagine my surprise to discover a group of artists that I had never heard of before. Good illustrations and interesting copy to read. Highly recommended and sorry that I did not purchase this book sooner.

This is a study of the Arts and Crafts movement in New Zealand and in particular of the role and contribution of women. The work uncovers a number of gifted artistic talents and a wide range of beautiful and unusual works mostly still in private hands. It explores drawing, textile design, bookbinding, metalwork, jewellery, wood carving and embroidery. The work also describes the growth of art education in New Zealand, drawing attention to the influential figures and showing how the artistic talents of women were encouraged and developed.
