Now I know how to dutch braid, too!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. A Modern, Edgy Flair for a Longer Hairstyle!By BelieverFrom an ancient form of braiding hair to adding a unique modern flair to a hairstyle, "The Braid Book" which I won through Goodreads Giveaways provides "20 Fun and Easy Styles" that will add interest and edge to longer hair.Sarah Hiscox and Willa Burton provide advice, tips and a list of essentials for creating and caring for your braid as well as easy instructions not only for basic plaits but also more elaborate styles. My favorites have to be the Khalessi from Game of Thrones, and the spirit of a mermaid in Cara 2.0 although there's something distinctive about every braid shown. The book comes complete with an illustrative picture beside each simple instruction and ribbon markers to keep track of your favorites. I liked "The Braid Book" with its interesting facts about the ancient art of braids at the end as well as a look at the styles endorsed by familiar celebrities and I can predict this book will be a hit with all the women in my family.

Ever lusted for a cool braid style, but just can't figure out how? Thanks to The Braid Book, now you can! Sarah Hiscox and Willa Burton, founders of London's hip The Braid Bar, show you how to style both simple and intricate braids in your own hair or a friend's, using clear, easy-to-follow directions and plenty of photos. The up-to-the-minute designs include braids from a plaited halo or an elaborate fishtail to a Cara Delevingne-inspired braid. You'll get ideas to adorn your hair with clips, pompoms, and bands, as well as other stylish tools such as hair chalk and glitter. There are secret tips, tricks, and advice on caring for your braids, as well as answers to frequently asked questions, to ensure you can get your braid on.

About the Author Sarah Hiscox and Willa Burton are partner-owners of The Braid Bar, a place where people of all ages can go and choose a braid from a visual style menu. No appointments, no hair wash, and no big bill! Sarah has worked in and around the fashion business for more than twenty-five years, most recently as a personal stylist.
