About the Author Nikki Burnette has drawn, painted and become well known for her witches throughout the years. She loves depicting magical, mysterious, colorful, enchanting witches that captivate their viewers. Nikki had an idea to make a coloring book exploring not only another side of witches, but also to illustrate all aspects of Wicca with well thought out and researched coloring images. Nikki approached her best friend BreAnna, who also happens to be a very talented artist herself, with the idea to collaborate and co-illustrate a coloring book about Wicca. BreAnna and Nikki met many years ago through their husbands who were childhood friends. They became very close after discovering their many similarities such as online gaming, art, the love of the fantasy genre, reading, and each being a mother to two small children. BreAnna has been studying Wicca from the age of 13, so now 11 years later she felt she had the knowledge to help Nikki create a wonderful coloring adventure for Wiccans and those who are curious about Wicca. So much consideration and research has gone into this book and each page has been well planned out. The pages are overflowing with thoughtful uses of symbolism and detailed depictions of the Wiccan faith. See a different side of Nikkis art and also discover the beautiful illustrations of BreAnna Friedman. The book features a huge variety of coloring pages from mandalas, to scenes, to patterns, to gods, goddesses and animals. Nikki and BreAnna cant wait for you to take a journey into Wicca with them and experience their coloring pages for yourself!
